AMERICAN NAVY THIRD ON LIST; EQUAL TO ANY BY YEAR 1925 SOLVES PROBLEM

Washington, D. C.—The object of the building policy formulated in 1913 by the Navy General Board, it was dis-closed Wednesday before the house naval committee, was to keep the United Associations of Northwest Form States ahead of Germany in the race for naval supremacy. The statement was made by Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger, a member of the general board, who explained that the policy had contemplated a fleet of 48 first-line battleships by 1919 to accomplish its purpose.

The statement did not go into the record of the hearing and Admiral Badger did not amplify it to show why the board had thought such a course necessary.

The admiral was replying to a suggestion that the object of the old policy, abandoned this year by the board for the first time, was to keep the American navy in second place. While
